Presiding Commissioner to discuss tax initiative on February 14

Boone County Presiding Commissioner Donnie Stamper will be the featured speaker at our February 14 luncheon meeting at Boone Tavern, beginning at noon.

Commissioner Stamper will discuss the controversial tax initiative still slated to be on the April ballot, that is intended to provide revenues for jail and courthouse expansions, and for general law enforcement purposes.

Lunch will be served beginning at noon and our speaker's remarks will follow. Cost is $8.00 per person. Call Lorri Shurtleff's office at 449-3894 to RSVP before February 14.

Our March meeting will occur on March 20 in Fulton at the annual Bench/Bar dinner. Members of the Missouri Court of Appeals for the Western District will be in attendance and will conduct oral arguments at the law school the following morning. An additional docket may be held in Fulton on the 20th. Judge Limbaugh of the Missouri Supreme Court will provide the entertainment. The event is tentatively slated to be held at Fulton Country Club.

Mark your calendars.

C.J. Dykhouse wants to thank everyone who wished him well and extended a helping hand as he went through his recovery from back surgery. The many inquiries and offers of assistance were very much appreciated and helped him to get through. It also served to remind him that this Circuit is a great place to practice law.

This high school competition will be once again held at the Boone County Courthouse. Please call Dan Dunham at 449-5316 as soon as possible.
