...around the Bar

Rachael F. Kennedy has joined the law firm of Shurtleff, Froeschner, Bunn & Hoffman, LLC, as an associate, effective February 21, 2001. Rachael practices primarily in the areas of mediation, family law, probate and estate planning.

Dave Evans has office space available at 717 Cherry in downtown Columbia. Office support services may be available according to your needs. Contact Dave at 449-8430.

Dewey Crepeau has office space for rent at 2501 West Ash Street. One or two corner offices are available, one with a private entrance. Both are wired for computer networking and both have receptionist services, phones, fax, copier, etc. available. Additional amenities include a library/conference room and kitchen and free parking. Call Dewey at 445-9435.

Nominations are now being sought for the Tom Cochran Community Service Award and the Liberty Bell Award. The Tom Cochran award is given to an attorney whose community service and professionalism have significantly enhanced his or her community. The Liberty Bell award is given to a non-lawyer in recognition of public service activities that have enhanced the legal community and/or justice system. Both awards are sponsored by the Young Lawyers Section of the Missouri Bar. Send nominations before May 1 to Keith Cutler, 818 Grand Avenue, Suite 600, Kansas City, MO 64106.

The Columbia/Boone County Community Partnership is seeking proposals to provide general legal counsel services to the partnership. For a copy of the RFP, please contact Susan Wolchko, Community Partnership, Parkade Center, 601 Business Loop 70 West, Suite 217A, Columbia 65203 (phone number is 256-1889).

OCDC Counsel to discuss ethics April 11

Sharon Weedin will be the featured speaker at our April 11 luncheon meeting at Boone Tavern. Sharon is a staff attorney with the Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel for the Missouri Bar and will discuss an attorney's obligations when withdrawing from representation. Sharon will also be available to answer questions on other ethics issues. This program qualifies for one hour of ethics credit.

Lunch will be served beginning at 11:30 a.m. and our speaker's remarks will follow. Cost is $8.00 per person. Please make your reservation by calling Lorri Shurtleff's office at 449-3894 before April 11.

The May meeting (May 9) will feature a panel discussion on how to make money practicing law without bankrupting your client. Ethics credit is being sought.

Local Bar Association Website now on-line

Steve Scott has announced that the Boone County Bar Association web site is now on-line. The address is <http://www.bocomobar.org>.

Of immediate importance to BCBA members are proposed revisions to the 13th Circuit Local Rules, which are included on the site at <http://www.bocomobar.org/rules.htm>. The court is requesting that bar members review the proposed revisions and submit comments by April 25.

BCBA members are asked to check their individual and firm listings on the Members page of the site and to report corrections and additions to Steve at sscott@scottlawfirm.com.

Other features of the site include a listing of present and past officers and committees, the BCBA bylaws, a news page, links to other law-related web sites, and courthouse phone listings, court schedules, and forms.

Members are encouraged to submit ideas for enhancement of the site to make it more useful.

Time to pay BCBA dues for 2001

The Boone County Bar Association dues are now payable to C.J. Dykhouse at 806 Locust, Columbia, 65201.

Dues receipts are used to defray Newsletter costs, to support college scholarships for local high school graduates, to pay for our participation in the Partners in Education program, and for many other projects.

Please help our Association: pay your dues today.
