Volume 16, Number 8—September 13, 2001 (evening ed.)

Dan Atwill new County Bar President

Boone County lawyer Dan Atwill won unanimous approval from those attending the Bar picnic to head the BCBA for 2001-2002. A complete list of elected officers for the upcoming year follows:

- President Dan Atwill
- Vice President Jim Powell
- Secretary Phoebe Lamar
- Treasurer Ed Orr

Betty Wilson and Liz Magee were also selected as the two at-large members of the Executive Committee.

The BCBA wishes to thank Gary Stamper, Leslie Schneider and Susan Ford Robinson for their service on the nominating committee.

Judge Conley to speak September 19

All Bar members are encouraged to attend the September 19, 2001 lunch meeting of the BCBA and listen to Judge Conley present his annual State of the Judiciary address, which qualifies for one hour of CLE credit.

Judge Conley is expected to discuss his ideas for improving bench bar relations and recent local rules changes.

Judge Conley usually offers suggestions in making your trial practice more efficient and manageable.

The September 19 meeting will begin at 11:30 with lunch ($8.00) at Boone Tavern, followed by Judge Conley's remarks.

Since this meeting is particularly well attended, please submit reservations to Phebe LaMar's office at 443-3141 before the 19th.

...around the Bar

Hamp Ford, Mike Baker, Dave Townsend and Chris Kespohl (Ford, Parshall & Baker) won the 2001 Bar Plan Foundation golf tournament at Winghaven Country Club near St. Peters on August 13 with an 11 under par 61. The absence of reigning Columbia city champion Jeff Parshall from his usual position of captain inspired the team to shoot its best-ever score in the eight-year history of the tournament.

Bob Buckley (Ford, Parshall & Baker) is the new District 5 Representative to the Young Lawyer's Section of the Missouri Bar, representing new attorneys and those 36 or younger.

Skip Walther begins his second term as District 15 Representative for the Missouri Bar Board of Governors, and represents all lawyers in Boone and Callaway Counties.

The 13th Judicial Circuit Advanced GAL training is scheduled for November 12, 2001 at the Lenoir Community Room. The cost is $10.00, payable at the door or in advance and will buy up to six hours of CLE credit. Details to follow.

The MU Law School is presenting a seminar on Intellectual Property and Cyber Law on September 28 at Hulston Hall on the MU campus. Register online at www.law.missouri.edu/cle or call 882-7251 and receive 3.3 CLE credits for attending.

Atwill begins term with a flourish

Dan Atwill, newly elected President of the Boone County Bar Association, has wasted no time in organizing his cabinet and preparing for this year's events.

Jim Powell is the Minister of Programming and Entertainment, and is lining up bar meeting programming. Bettie Johnson is the tentative speaker at the October 10 meeting and will discuss the new recording rules. Several Western District Court of Appeal judges will speak at the November 14 meeting, including Judges Ulrich, Holliger and Hardwick, and plans are already underway for our annual December Holiday Party.

Phebe Lamar is the Minister of Minutes and Attendance, and will distribute a questionnaire at the upcoming meeting on programming possibilities, community service projects, the BCBA website, a new Bar composite photo, and other issues of interest to area lawyers.

Ed Orr is Minister of Finance and Loose Ends and is ready to make a special presentation at the September BCBA meeting. Ed is seeing that our tax returns are filed and that the Secretary of State gets our annual registration report.

Betty Wilson is the Minister of the Hereafter and is scouring news reports, obits, etc. for items of legal interest.

Ron Bartlett is Minister of Christmas (Holidays) Past.

Steve Scott is Minister of Cyber Space and Lottery. We may see the return of the business card lottery at this month's meeting. Don't miss out, just in case.

Liz Magee is the Minister of the Courthouse and will make sure the judges don't change any rules without our permission.

Kirsten Craver is Minister of Young Lawyers and will conduct all business except for that for which the President can get good press coverage.

It will be an interesting year.
