In Memoriam: Darwin Hindman

BCBA member and former Columbia mayor Darwin Hindman, 86, passed away Monday morning. He was an Air Force pilot and attended the University of Missouri School of Law prior to commencing his legal career.

Darwin served as Columbia’s mayor for fifteen years, 1995-2010, a role he held longer than anyone else. His love for the city in which he was reared shown brightly during his tenure. Perhaps his greatest legacy as mayor are the many projects he launched that contributed to the city’s growth and will continue to be loved by and enrich the lives of Columbia citizens, including the MKT trail, Stephens Lake Park and the ARC.

Darwin had a passion for biking and was frequently seen riding his bike around town. As mayor, he helped secure $25 million of federal funding for local biking and walking projects. He was instrumental in getting the Katy Trail built, which earned him the moniker of ‘father of the Katy Trail.’

We send our heartfelt condolences to Darwin’s wife Axie, their children and families. A memorial service was held Saturday, June 22nd, at the Calvary Episcopal Church on Ninth Street.

BCBA Members Invited to Instructive Wine Tasting and Dinner at Chris McD’s July 17

BCBA members (in good standing) are invited to a private back room Instructive Wine Tasting and Dinner on July 17, 2019, at 6:30 p.m. This event is limited to the first 24 attendees to RSVP. Each member may bring one guest.

The presenter will be Chuck Johnson, Director of Sales for Missouri D&E Fine Wine Group Southern Glazer’s Wine and Spirits. Chuck has 40 years experience in the wine industry, and holds the Certified Specialist of Wine and Level One Sommelier Certificate for the Court of Master Sommelier. Chuck has explored the wine regions of Europe, North and South America, and has trained in the wines of Burgundy, Bordeaux, Champagne, Rhone and Alsace, France. More information can be found at the BCBA website by clicking here: <https://boonecountybar.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/06/BCBA-Inst.-Wine-Tasting-Dinner-6-21-19.pdf>.

The cost for this event is $70 per person, and includes a $50 dinner of multiple small plates, including tax and tip. Over a third of the wine is at no cost and the remainder at wholesale. This is a bargain and should be fun with an expert commentator.
