New BCBA Website in the Works . . . And We Need Your Help

As a reminder, the BCBA Executive Committee is working to update and refresh the BCBA website. But we need your help.

One of the goals is to expand the history of the BCBA. Our hope is to create an archive showcasing both the BCBA organization itself and its members. While the organization has formalized over the years, the Boone County Bar dates back to over 100 years ago (at least based on the pictures in the Counsel Chambers of the Courthouse). Much of that history is either lost, or at risk of being lost, as there is not currently a central repository for information about the local legal community, particularly from dates preceding the Newsletter archive.

Members are encouraged to provide the Newsletter Editor/Webmaster with BCBA historical information that might be of interest to include on the website about the BCBA or its members. Please send submissions to the Newsletter Editor/Webmaster, Lear Werts LLP, at bcbaneews@learwerts.com.

City of Columbia Seeks Public's Input for Police Chief

Public Sector Search & Consulting will also be hosting a community forum Saturday, July 8, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. at the Activity & Recreation Center, 1701 W. Ash Street. As a first step in the search process, the City has published a survey on its online engagement platform at BeHeard.CoMo.gov/city-of-columbia-police-chief-search.
